THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE L.NARASIMHA REDDY

W.P.No.22732 of 2003

ORDER:

Petitioner had challenged the notification, dated 16.09.2003, through which the second respondent initiated steps for appointment of a Dealer to the Fair Price Shop at Nadigudem Village, Nalgonda District. The petitioner contends that the shop was earmarked for O.C. instead of O.C. Woman. The grievance of the petitioner is that the shop was held by an O.C. Woman, before the impugned notification was issued.

The second respondent filed a counter affidavit, stating that out of 397 shops in his revenue division, as many as 139 women were appointed as Dealers, as against their entitlement to 120 shops. It is also stated that the petitioner was eligible to apply for the shop and still, she did not submit her application.

Whatever be the merits of the matter, the selection was proceeded with, since this Court did not grant any interim orders. If the petitioner feels aggrieved by the selections, she has to file an appeal before the Joint Collector.

The writ petition is, accordingly, dismissed as infructuous. There shall be no order as to costs.
